Congratulations to Sister Veronica Spibey from Royal Oldham Hospital NICU on winning the Archie Bereavement Professionals Award at the Saying Goodbye Charity Awards (division of the Mariposa Trust).

The Mariposa Trust is a global charity supporting those touched by baby loss. The award was presented by Kym Marsh whose son the award is in honour of.

“Vron has worked for the NHS for over 40 years and is in her 10th year of being a bereavement sister at Royal Oldham. She was kindly nominated for the award by a family she has supported. Vron feels extremely humbled and says “It’s a privilege supporting families in their darkest time”

Study at UCL exploring job satisfaction and intent to stay in your current role. All neonatal nurses and nursing associates can take part. The survey is online and will take approximately 15 minutes to complete. Please follow the link for more information.
